

THE 321ST INFANTRY

First Company Commanders.

Headquarters Company—Capt. Gordan A. Duncan (Acting Adjutant).

Supply Company—Capt. Tan B. Smith.

Machine Gun Company—Capt. Curtis Bynum.

Company A—Capt. Daniel W. Adams (Commanding Third Battalion).

Company B—Capt. Chas. R. Bagley.

Company C—Capt. Cicero G. Falls.

Company D—Capt. Augustine W. Folger.

Company E—Capt. Andrew J. Harris (killed in action).

Company F—Capt. Geo. R. Dawson.

Company G—Capt. Blackburn Hughes.

Company H—First Lieut. Robert M. Barden.

Company I—First Lieut. Henry A. Ferguson.

Company K—First Lieut. Lawrence Crabb.

Company L—First Lieut. Claude F. Andrews.

Company M—First Lieut. Ernest B. Hunter.

The first medical officer assigned to the 321st Infantry was Capt. Fred H. Bloomhardt, who served with the regiment throughout its entire period of service. Captain Bloomhardt was promoted to major April 30, 1918, and to lieutenant colonel early in 1919.

FIRST DAYS IN CAMP.

The few men who composed the regiment at its organization were taken from the five per cent. called in the first draft, September 5, 1917. This first five per cent. ordered to training